Hop. Willia E. Meyers of this city returned yesterday morning from Arizona Territory. Mr. Meyers is part owner of the famous Uncle George mine, near Critenden, Arizona, and is feeling especially good over another very rich strike that occurred last Sunday. It fairly eclipses anything that has been struck before, and insures beyond a doubt, the success of the mine. Mr. Meyers has been at the mine for over three months, and brings back some very fine specimens of silver ore. Shipping will begin in a day or two.-Denver Repub-

The Manhattan Club invited Vice President Hendricks last week to come over and take a cup of tea. The Vice President deeply regreted to have to decline on account of "dressing and im-portant business." As he had got the ndianapolis postoffice business settled everybody supposed he had not another single thing upon his mind, and would not have untill the Senate met next winter. But the Pogue's Run state-man is sly, and that "pressing land important business"doubtless means another pest office or some thing of a like kind.
